Tashir opens a new RIO shopping center in Arkhangelsk

Tashir Group announces the opening of a new shopping and entertainment center in the city of Arkhangelsk as part of the nationwide RIO chain. A total of 2 billion rubles has been invested in the project. The technical opening took place in Arkhangelsk on December 22.

The new RIO center is located in central Arkhangelsk at 10 Rozinga Street. The two-story building of over 26,000 square meters is easily accessible by different kinds of transport and has a parking lot for 700 cars.

Anchor tenants of the new RIO center include an 8,000 square meter MAXI hypermarket, a Detsky Mir store of products for children (1,000 sq.m.), a DNS supermarket of electronics and home appliances (1,500 sq.m.) and a Cosmostar family entertainment center (1,200 sq.m.). In addition, there is a four-screen multiplex of the nationwide Cinema Star chain (1,600 sq.m.), which is part of Tashir Group. This is its 26th project in Russia.

Also, the new center plans to host stores of Russia's leading clothing, footwear, cosmetics, perfume and sports goods brands.
